God Bless the USA (Lee Greenwood)

If tomorrow all the things were gone
.. I'd worked for all my life,
And I had to start again
.. with just my children and my wife,
I'd thank my lucky stars
.. to be livin' here today.
Cause the flag still stands for freedom
.. And they can't take that away.

And I'm proud to be an American
Where at least I know I'm free
And I won't forget the men who died
Who gave that right to me
And I gladly stand up
.. next to you and defend her still today
Cause there ain't no doubt I love this land
God bless the USA

From the lakes of Minnesota
... To the hills of Tennessee
... Across the plains of Texas
... From sea to shining sea
... From Detroit down to Houston
... And New York to LA
Well there's pride in every American heart
And it's time we stand and say..

That I'm proud to be an American
Where at least I know I'm free
And I won't forget the men who died
Who gave that right to me
And I gladly stand up .. next to you and defend her still today
Cause there ain't no doubt I love this land
God bless the USA!

Summer Place Theatre

Cost:$15

The Father of the Bride is Mr. Banks, whose daughter, Kay, suddenly drops the news that she is engaged. Of course, the whole family agrees it will be a simple, small, modest wedding. But Mrs. Banks is sure she can sneak in just a few more of her friends. The oldest son, Ben, is sure no one will mind if he invites a few people. Even little Tommy Banks wonders why he doesn't have a say in who can come. Before long, the "small" wedding has gotten completely out of control, causing no shortage of hilarious consequences for poor Mr. Banks.

With Rick Saucedo
Cantigny Park
Sunday, July 30th
2:00-5:30pm
Cost:$7

Chicago-born Saucedo, the self-styled "Prince of Rock 'n Roll," is widely regarded as one of the earliest and consistently best tribute performers in America. This year marks his 40th anniversary as an Elvis tribute artist, an act that began after Saucedo heard the song "Burning Love" in 1972. An accomplished singer, musician and songwriter, Saucedo performed the lead role in the 1978 Broadway musical, Elvis: The Legend Lives. He enjoys a massive following in the Chicago area, which was apparent when Saucedo played a bandshell concert at Cantigny in 2011. The upcoming concert will be longer, with two sets and one intermission.
