Joe and Jerry are unfortunate witnesses of the St. Valentine's Day Massacre. To escape gangster Spats Palazzo, they hitch a ride to Florida disguised as members of a band--a female band. They seem to be in the clear, except Joe (or "Josephine") starts to fall for the band's lead singer Sugar Kane. Add to that a wealthy older gentleman who wants to whisk Jerry ("Daphne") away, and you've got a comedy that has delighted audiences for decades. The 1973 Tony Award-winning musical features tunes like "Penniless Bums," "Beautiful Through and Through," and, of course, "Sugar"!

Limited space. Sign-up deadline June 22nd or until filled.

Celebrate the Music of America with Maestro Peter Lipari and the West Suburban Symphony on the lawn of the First Division Museum for an orchestral tour of our country, from Appalachia to the Wild West. This entertaining concert features John Williams's Music from Lincoln in honor of the Illinois Bicentennial, selections from Aaron Copland's Rodeo ballet, and medleys of well-known American songs. Chairs, light snacks and beverages will be provided.

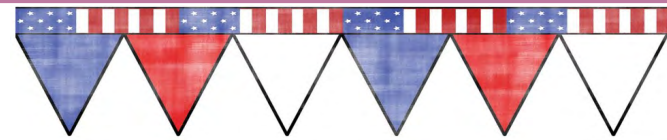

Limited space. Sign-up deadline June 30th or until filled.
