The Circus: Big Tent, Big Dreams

For many Americans, the circus embodied the improbable and the impossible, the exotic and the spectacular. Drawing upon a vast and richly visual archive it features a host of performers, historians, and aficionados. This PBS four-part mini-series follows the rise and fall of the gigantic traveling tented railroad circus and brings to life an era when Circus Day would shut down a town and its stars were among the most famous people in the country.

Every Monday in September 3:00pm in the Great Room

B.U. Class: Being Mortal

Wii Bowling simulates real-life bowling by using simple motion controls in a video game—bowling the ball is as easy as flicking your wrist. Wii Bowling is a great way to meet new people, and is also being used to increase hand-eye coordination. Sign up at the Concierge Desk for our New Season Kickoff Meeting where we meet the other players and pick our bowling teams. Teams meet once a week and bowling times vary by each team’s availability.

Limited Space. Sign-up deadline September 8th or until filled.
